

From: greg armstrong
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 3:49pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft should be punished for stifling competition and helping curtail the software industry.

What better way to boost the economy than open the flood gates to competition and let the boom begin again, this time with out microsofts handcuffs.

Show us for a change that big business is not in bed with the government. Give me and my children hope, please.

Greg Armstrong